

Boulcott Street Bistro

The door opened in this Wellington dining institution in 1991 and the Boulcott Street Bistro has been serving Wellingtonians innovative, modern food as well as some classics such as Lamb Shanks, Fillet Béarnaise and Crème Brulée ever since. The locals continue to pack the restaurant out daily and as well as the excellent food they enjoy the extensive wine list and friendly, efficient service. Reservations are accepted for lunch only. Dinner is casual dining so just go along. There is a private dining room available for groups of 10 to 16 people, contact the restaurant to find out more.
