Amisfield Central Otago Sauvignon Blanc 08

48 11

A super summery wine that remind me of gooseberry, kiwifruit and green apples, its zesty acids giving it an extremely food friendly style to enjoy.

Wild Earth Bannockburn Central Otago Pinot Noir 07

82 18

Following on from the famous 06 vintage which won best red wine at the prestigious IWC in London, the 07 offers generous berry and forest fruit on the nose, in a concentrated bouquet that develops into a textured palate with layers of intense fruit and spice. Voted NZ's best Pinot Noir by Cuisine magazine.

Newton Forrest Cornerstone Cabernet/Merlot/Malbec 06

88 20

Gimblett Gravels Hawke's Bay

Jancis Robinson, Michael Schuster and Neal Martin all have big reputations within the international wine community. In a recent master class blind tasting in London, this wine was voted in the top six, after a dozen of the best from Bordeaux and Gimblett Gravels were judged. If you were ever skeptical that New Zealand could produce quality Cabernet red wines this wine may change your mind forever.
